Ashlie White Joins AOPA as Manager of Projects

Brings Experience as a Former AOPA Member

We are pleased to announce that Ashlie White, MA has joined the AOPA staff team as the Manager of Projects! She will be responsible for managing ongoing projects as part of AOPA's Survival Imperatives, including AOPA's Registry, Outcomes and Comparative/Cost Effectiveness programs, Mobility Saves, Reimbursement Compendium and Membership Enhancement.

She comes to us from Beacon P&O, where she was Director of Operations. She has also served as Director of Government Affairs for the North Carolina Orthotics and Prosthetics Trade Association (NCOPTA) and as a member of the Board of Directors for NAAOP. We look forward to the unique perspective she brings from the patient care facility world.

AOPA Offers 2 RAC Audit Webinars

First Webinar FREE for Members, Second $99 Members/$199 Non-Members

AOPA has recently received reports of increased RAC activity and has scheduled several educational webinars to help you prepare. The first webinar covered the basics of what the renewed RAC audits mean for O&P providers and how to be prepared to respond to an audit request when it is received. The second webinar will focus on the details of preparing your practice to do the things today that will protect you from RAC audits when they are received.

Understanding the Basics of RAC Audits and How to Prepare for Them; Free for AOPA Members, The webinar took place July 14 but the recording is available.

Don't Let the RACs Catch You Unprepared: Working Today to Protect Tomorrow; July 21st, 1:00 PM EDT, $99 Members; $199 Non-Members.
